6TH DIVISION PRESIDING JUDGE
CIRCUIT JUDGE

TO : ALL PARTIES

FROM : JUDGE KARIN L. HOLMA

SUBJECT : ANY MOTION BROUGHT UNDER RULES 12 OR 56 OF THE HAWAII RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

HEARING : DATE: July 16, 2024
TIME: 2:00 p.m.

PLACE : IN JUDGE HOLMA'S COURTROOM NO. 11 ON THE FOURTH FLOOR OF KAAHUMANU HALE, LOCATED AT 777 PUNCHBOWL STREET, HONOLULU, HAWAII.

NOTICE TO ALL PARTIES RE:
(1) DUTY TO IDENTIFY RELEVANT RECORD
AND (2) HRCP 56(e) AUTHENTICATING EXHIBITS

(1) All parties have a duty to specifically cite to the page and line numbers of an exhibit or declaration that show a genuine issue of material fact does exist or does not exist. Failure to discharge this duty may result in the court disregarding your argument. [Munoz v. Yuen, 66 Haw. 603, 670 P.2d 825, 826 (1983).]

(2) The court may not consider any exhibit unless the exhibit is admissible in evidence. This requires each exhibit to be authenticated by a competent witness. [G.E. Capital Hawaii, Inc. v. Yonenaka, 96 Hawai`i 32, 40, 25 P.3d 807, 815 (App. 2001).]

Attorneys are generally not competent to authenticate an exhibit unless counsel participated in the creation of the document or otherwise has personal knowledge of the authenticity of the document. [Nakato v. Marcharg, 89 Hawai`i 79, 88-90, 969 P.2d 824, 833-35 (App. 1998).] Counsel who purports to authenticate an exhibit shall state with specificity and in great detail in the declaration or affidavit why he or she is competent to authenticate a document in light of Nakato. A conclusory statement that merely states that the declarant or affiant has personal knowledge and is competent is insufficient.

NOTICE OF ENTRY

The above NOTICE TO ALL PARTIES RE:(1) DUTY TO IDENTIFY RELEVANT RECORD AND (2) HRCP 56(e) AUTHENTICATING EXHIBITS was uploaded to JIMS and thereby automatically served on Counsels.
